President's Letter

June 30, 2008

DEAR SHAREHOLDER:

It's been a volatile six months for investors, with bad news hitting close to home. The negatives can be found very easily: a level of weakness in the U.S. housing market not seen since the 1930s, a credit crunch driven by an implosion of the subprime mortgage market, record high energy and food prices and weak corporate earnings in many sectors.

There are, nonetheless, some positives: exports are strong, farmers are enjoying great prices for grain, (assuming nature will cooperate with the right mix of rain and sun). Alternative energy is a rapidly growing industry, offering many exciting new technologies. Tourists are flocking to our shores to take advantage of a cheap U.S. dollar to shop.

Enclosed is our report on the operations of W&R Target Funds, Inc. for the six months ended June 30, 2008. For this period, the

S&P 500 Index declined 11.92 percent while the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index rose 1.13 percent. As shown in the Economic Snapshot table below, consumer prices rose at an annualized pace of 5.0 percent for the period.

On July 31, 2008, the W&R Target Funds, Inc. experienced a name change and are now known as the Ivy Funds Variable Insurance Portfolios, Inc.

More investment options

During this six-month period, we introduced five new investment options called the W&R Target Pathfinder Portfolios, whose information is included in this semiannual report. We encourage you to meet with your advisor to discuss whether the Pathfinder Portfolios might be appropriate for your goals.

Economic Snapshot

All government statistics shown are subject to periodic revision.

The U.S. Consumer Price Index is the government's measure of the change in the retail cost of goods and services. Gross domestic product measures year-over-year changes in the output of goods and services. Mortgage rates shown reflect the average rate on a conventional loan with a 60-day lender commitment. Oil prices reflect the market price of West Texas intermediate grade crude.

Our commitment

We believe that maintaining a well-rounded portfolio and prudent financial planning are essential elements for achieving your objectives. As investment managers since 1937, our organization has always been mindful that we are managing other people's money.

Respectfully,

Henry J. Herrmann, CFA
President

In this uncertain environment, we believe a very strong effort to manage risk takes precedence over the desire to maximize capital appreciation. With that approach in mind, we will strive to earn your continued confidence for many years to come.

The opinions expressed in this letter are those of the President of W&R Target Funds, Inc., and are current only through the end of the period of the report, as stated on the cover. The President's views are subject to change at any time, based on market and other conditions, and no forecasts can be guaranteed.

Illustration of Portfolio Expenses

As a shareholder of a Portfolio, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service fees, and other Portfolio expenses. The following tables are intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in a Portfolio and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the six-month period ended June 30, 2008.

Actual Expenses

The first line in the following tables provides information about actual investment values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with your initial investment in Portfolio shares, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide the value of that investment by $1,000 (for example, a $7,500 initial investment divided by $1,000 = 7.5), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled “Expenses Paid During Period” to estimate the expenses you paid on your investment during this period. In addition, there are fees and expenses imposed under the variable annuity or variable life insurance contract through which shares of the Portfolio are held. Additional fees have the effect of reducing investment returns.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line in the following tables provides information about hypothetical investment values and hypothetical expenses based on the Portfolio's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of five percent per year before expenses, which is not the Portfolio's actual return. The hypothetical investment values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual investment value at the end of the period or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Portfolio and other funds. To do so, compare this five percent hypothetical example with the five percent hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the tables are meant to highlight your ongoing costs as a shareholder of the Portfolio and do not reflect any fees and expenses imposed under the variable annuity or variable life insurance contract through which shares of the Portfolio are held.

*Portfolio expenses are equal to the Portfolio's annualized expense ratio (provided in the table), multiplied by the average investment value over the period, multiplied by 182 days in the six-month period ended June 30, 2008, and divided by 366.

(1) This line uses the Portfolio's actual total return and actual Portfolio expenses. It is a guide to the actual expenses paid by the Portfolio in the period. The "Ending Investment Value" shown is computed using the Portfolio's actual return and the "Expenses Paid During Period" column shows the dollar amount that would have been paid by an investor who started with $1,000 in the Portfolio. A shareholder may use the information here, together with the dollar amount invested, to estimate the expenses that were paid over the period. For every thousand dollars a shareholder has invested, the expenses are listed in the last column.

(2) This line uses a hypothetical five percent annual return and actual Portfolio expenses. It helps to compare the Portfolio's ongoing costs with other mutual funds. A shareholder can compare the Portfolio's ongoing costs by comparing this hypothetical example with the hypothetical examples that appear in shareholder reports of other funds.

The above illustration is based on ongoing costs only.

NOTE 1 – Significant Accounting Policies

W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, open-end management investment company. Capital stock is divided into twenty-five classes (each a Portfolio). The assets belonging to each Portfolio are held separately by the custodian. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

- A. Security valuation – Each stock and convertible bond is valued at the latest sale price thereof on each business day of the fiscal period as reported by the principal securities exchange on which the issue is traded or, if no sale is reported for a stock, the average of the latest bid and asked prices. Bonds, other than convertible bonds, are valued using a pricing system provided by a pricing service or dealer in bonds. Convertible bonds are valued using this pricing system only on days when there is no sale reported. Stocks which are traded over-the-counter are priced using the Nasdaq Stock Market, which provides information on bid and asked prices quoted by major dealers in such stocks. Gold bullion is valued at the last settlement price for current delivery as calculated by the Commodity Exchange, Inc. as of the close of that exchange. Securities for which quotations are not readily available or are deemed not to be reliable because of significant events or circumstances identified between the closing of their principal markets and the closing of the New York Stock Exchange are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Fund's Board of Directors. Management's valuation committee makes fair value determinations for the Fund subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors. Short-term debt securities, purchased with less than 60 days to maturity, are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term debt securities denominated in foreign currencies are valued at amortized cost in that currency, prior to translation.
- B. Security transactions and related investment income – Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed). Securities gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Premium and discount on the purchase of bonds are amortized for both financial and tax reporting purposes over the remaining lives of the bonds. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, which are recorded as soon as the Portfolio is informed of the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. See Note 4 – Investment Securities Transactions.
- C. Foreign currency translations – All assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars daily. Purchases and sales of investment securities and accruals of income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction. For assets and liabilities other than investments in securities, net realized and unrealized gains and losses from foreign currency translations arise from changes in currency exchange rates. The Fund combines fluctuations from currency exchange rates and fluctuations in market value when computing net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.

- D. Federal income taxes – It is each Portfolio's policy to distribute all of its taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders and otherwise continue to qualify as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, provision has not been made for Federal income taxes. During the current fiscal year, each Portfolio instituted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board No. 48 "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" (FIN 48). As required by FIN 48, management of each Portfolio periodically reviews all tax positions to assess that it is more likely than not that the position would be sustained upon examination by the relevant tax authority based on the technical merits of each position. As of June 30, 2008, management believes that under this standard no liability for unrecognized tax positions is required. Each Portfolio is subject to examination by U.S. federal and state tax authorities for returns filed for years after 2004. See Note 5 – Federal Income Tax Matters.
- E. Dividends and distributions – Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded by each Portfolio on the business day following the record date. Net investment income distributions and capital gains distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences are due to differing treatments for items such as deferral of wash sales and post-October losses, foreign currency transactions, net operating losses and expiring capital loss carryovers.
- F. Repurchase agreements – It is the Fund's policy that repurchase agreements be collateralized at all times by securities, the value of which remains at least equal to the value of the loan, including accrued interest. The collateral for the repurchase agreement is held by the Fund's custodian bank.
- G. Forward foreign currency exchange contracts – A forward foreign currency exchange contract (Forward Contract) is an obligation to purchase or sell a specific currency at a future date at a fixed price. Forward Contracts are marked-to-market daily at the applicable translation rates and the resulting unrealized gains or losses are reflected in the Fund's financial statements. Gains or losses are realized by the Fund at the time the forward contract is extinguished. Contracts may be extinguished either by entry into a closing transaction or by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise from the possibility that the other party will not complete the obligations of the Contract and from unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the United States dollar. A Portfolio uses Forward Contracts to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments or to enhance returns.
- H. Concentration of Risk – For Asset Strategy Portfolio, Global Natural Resources Portfolio, International Growth Portfolio, and International Value Portfolio, the Portfolio may have a significant investment in international securities. International investing involves additional risks, including currency fluctuations, political or economic conditions affecting the foreign country, investment and repatriation restrictions, and limited and less reliable investor information. For Energy Portfolio, the Portfolio seeks to achieve its objective by concentrating its investments primarily in equity securities of companies principally engaged in exploration, discovery, distribution or related to the infrastructure of energy and/or alternative energy. Investing in companies involved in one specified sector may be more risky than an investment with greater diversification. For Science and Technology Portfolio, the Portfolio seeks to achieve its objective by concentrating its investments primarily in equity securities of science and technology companies. Investing in companies involved in one specified sector may be more risky than an investment with greater diversification.

I. New Accounting Pronouncements – In March 2008, FASB issued SFAS No. 161, “Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities – an amendment of FASB Statement No. 133” (SFAS 161). SFAS 161 amends and expands disclosures about derivative instruments and hedging activities. SFAS 161 requires qualitative disclosures about the objectives and strategies of derivative instruments, quantitative disclosures about the fair value amounts of and gains and losses on derivative instruments, and disclosures of credit-risk-related contingent features in hedging activities. SFAS 161 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008. The Fund will institute SFAS 161 during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009 and its potential impact, if any, on its financial statements is currently being assessed by management.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 – Investment Management and Payments to Affiliated Persons

Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company (WRIMCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of Waddell & Reed, Inc. (W&R), serves as the Fund’s investment manager. NOTE 3 – Investment Valuations

The Fund has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS 157). In accordance with FAS 157, fair value is defined as the price that each Portfolio would receive upon selling an asset or paying to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. FAS 157 also establishes a framework for measuring fair value and a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements based upon the transparency of inputs to the valuation of an asset or liability. Inputs may be observable or unobservable and refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. An individual investment's fair value measurement is assigned a level based upon the observability of the inputs which are significant to the overall valuation. The three-tier hierarchy of inputs is summarized below.

Level 1 – quoted prices in active markets for identical securities

Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)

Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs (including each Portfolio's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The following tables summarize the valuation of each Portfolio's investments by the above FAS 157 fair value hierarchy levels as of June 30, 2008.

NOTE 6 – Options

Options purchased by a Portfolio are accounted for in the same manner as marketable portfolio securities. The cost of portfolio securities acquired through the exercise of call options is increased by the premium paid to purchase the call. The proceeds from securities sold through the exercise of put options are decreased by the premium paid to purchase the put. A Portfolio may also enter into a collar situation in which elements of buying a cap and selling a floor or vice versa are combined in an attempt to reduce risk.

When a Portfolio writes (sells) an option, an amount equal to the premium received by the Portfolio is recorded as a liability. The amount of the liability is subsequently adjusted to reflect the current market value of the option written. The current market value of an option is the last sales price on the principal exchange on which the option is traded or, in the absence of transactions, the mean between the bid and asked prices or a value supplied by a broker-dealer. When an option expires on its stipulated expiration date or the Portfolio enters into a closing purchase transaction, the Portfolio realizes a gain (or loss if the cost of a closing purchase transaction exceeds the premium received when the call option was sold) and the liability related to such option is extinguished. When a written call option is exercised, the premium is added to the proceeds from the sale of the underlying security in determining whether the Portfolio has realized a gain or loss. For the Portfolio, when a written put option is exercised, the cost basis of the securities purchased by the Portfolio is reduced by the amount of the premium received. Investments in options, whether purchased or written, involve certain risks. Writing put options and purchasing call options may increase the Portfolio's exposure to the underlying security (or basket of securities). Purchasing put options and writing call options may decrease the Portfolio's exposure to the underlying security (or basket of securities). With written options, there may be times when the Portfolio will be required to purchase or sell securities to meet its obligation under the option contract where the required action is not beneficial to the Portfolio, due to unfavorable movement of the market price of the underlying security (or basket of securities). Additionally, to the extent the Portfolio enters into over-the-counter (OTC) option transactions with counterparties, the Portfolio will be exposed to the risk that counterparties to these OTC transactions, for whatever reason, will be unable to meet their obligations under the terms of the transaction.

NOTE 7 – Futures

No price is paid upon entering into a futures contract. Instead, upon entering into a futures contract, a Portfolio is required to deposit, in a segregated account, an amount of cash or liquid securities equal to a varying specified percentage of the contract amount. This amount is known as the initial margin. Subsequent payments (variation margins) are made or received by the Portfolio each day, dependent on the daily fluctuations in the value of the underlying debt security or index. These changes in the variation margins are recorded by the Portfolio as unrealized gains or losses. Upon the closing of the contracts, the cumulative net change in the variation margin is recorded as realized gain or loss. A Portfolio uses futures to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments or to enhance returns. The risks of futures contracts include the possibility there may be an illiquid secondary market, that a change in the value of the contract may not correlate with the changes in the value of the underlying securities, and/or the possible inability of the counterparty to fulfill its obligations under the agreement.

NOTE 8 – Swaps

Each Portfolio, excluding Money Market Portfolio, may invest in swap agreements, which are agreements to exchange the return generated by one instrument for the return generated by another instrument. Each Portfolio, excluding Money Market Portfolio, may enter into credit default, total return, variance and other swap agreements to: 1) preserve a return or a spread on a particular investment or portion of its portfolio; 2) to protect against any increase in the price of securities the Portfolio anticipates purchasing at a later date; or 3) to attempt to enhance yield.

Credit default swaps involve the exchange of a fixed rate premium for protection against the loss in value of an underlying security in the event of a defined credit event, such as payment default or bankruptcy. Under a credit default swap one party acts as a guarantor by receiving the fixed periodic payment in exchange for the commitment to purchase the underlying security at par if the defined credit event occurs. Each Portfolio, excluding Money Market Portfolio, may enter into credit default swaps in which either it or its counterparty act as the guarantor.

Total return swaps involve a commitment to pay periodic interest payments in exchange for a market-linked return based on a security or a basket of securities representing a variety of securities or a particular index. To the extent the total return of the security, index or other financial measure underlying the transaction exceeds or falls short of the offsetting interest rate obligation, the Portfolio will receive a payment from or make a payment to the counterparty.

Variance swaps involve a contract in which two parties agree to exchange cash flows based on the measured variance of a specified underlying security or index during a certain time period. On the trade date, the two parties agree on the strike price of the contract (the reference level against which cash flows are exchanged), as well as the number of units in the transaction and the length of the contract. Like an option contract, the value of a variance swap is influenced by both realized and implied volatility, as well as the passage of time. Each Portfolio, excluding Money Market Portfolio, may enter into variance swaps to manage volatility risk.

The creditworthiness of firms with which a Portfolio enters into a swap agreement is monitored by WRIMCO. If a firm's creditworthiness declines, the value of the agreement would likely decline, potentially resulting in losses. If a default occurs by the counterparty to such a transaction, the Portfolio will have contractual remedies pursuant to the agreement related to the transaction.

Swaps are marked-to-market daily based on valuations provided by a pricing vendor or a broker dealer. Changes in value are recorded as unrealized appreciation (depreciation) in the Statement of Operations. Collateral, in the form of cash or securities, may be required to be held in segregated accounts with the custodian or counterparty. Payments received or made at the beginning of the measurement period are reflected as such on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. These upfront payments, as well as any periodic payments, are recorded as realized gain or loss in the Statement of Operations. Gains or losses may be realized upon termination of the swap agreement.

Entering into swap agreements involves certain risks. Among these are possible failure of the counterparty to fulfill its obligations, possible lack of liquidity, and unfavorable changes in interest rates or underlying investments.

NOTE 12 – Senior Loans

High Income Portfolio invests in senior secured corporate loans either as an original lender or as a purchaser of a loan assignment or a participation interest in a loan. Senior Loans are generally made to U.S. and foreign borrowers that are corporations, partnerships or other business entities. Senior Loans are generally readily marketable, but some loans may be illiquid or be subject to some restrictions on resale. These loans are valued using a composite price from more than one broker or dealer as obtained from a pricing service. As of June 30, 2008, securities with an aggregate market value of $2,330,499 representing 1.14% of the Portfolio's net assets were comprised of senior loans.

As of June, 30, 2008, High Income Portfolio had unfunded loan commitments of approximately $24,327. The Portfolio is obligated to fund these loan commitments at the borrower's discretion. Funded portions of these commitments are presented in the Schedule of Investments while unfunded commitments are as follows:

High Income Portfolio	$24,327	$22,900

NOTE 13 – Subsequent Events

Effective July 31, 2008, the name of the Fund changed to Ivy Funds Variable Insurance Portfolios, Inc.; Dividend Income Portfolio became Dividend Opportunities Portfolio and changed its investment objective to provide total return effective that same day.

NOTE 14– Regulatory and Litigation Matters

On July 24, 2006, WRIMCO, W&R and WRSCO (collectively, Waddell & Reed) reached a settlement with each of the SEC, the New York Attorney General (NYAG) and the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas to resolve proceedings brought by each regulator in connection with its investigation of frequent trading and market timing in certain Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds.

Under the terms of the SEC's cease-and desist order (SEC Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among other provisions Waddell & Reed has agreed to: pay $40 million in disgorgement and $10 million in civil money penalties; cease and desist from violations of the antifraud provisions and certain other provisions of the federal securities laws; maintain certain compliance and ethics oversight structures; retain an independent consultant to periodically review Waddell & Reed's supervisory, compliance, control and other policies and procedures; and retain an independent distribution consultant (described below). According to the SEC Order, the SEC found that some market timers made profits in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, and that this may have caused some dilution in those Funds. Also, the SEC found that Waddell & Reed failed to make certain disclosures to the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds' Boards of Directors and shareholders regarding the market timing activity and Waddell & Reed's acceptance of service fees from some market timers.

The Assurance of Discontinuance with the NYAG (NYAG Settlement), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among its conditions requires that Waddell & Reed: reduce the aggregate investment management fees paid by certain of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds and certain of the W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Funds) by $5 million per year for five years, for a projected total of $25 million in investment management fee reductions; bear the costs of an independent fee consultant to be retained by the Funds to review and consult regarding the Funds' investment management fee arrangements; and make additional investment management fee-related disclosures to Fund shareholders. During the past six months, Balanced Portfolio, Bond Portfolio, Dividend Income Portfolio, Energy Portfolio, Global Natural Resources Portfolio, International Value Portfolio, Micro Cap Growth Portfolio, Money Market Portfolio, Mortgage Securities Portfolio, Real Estate Securities Portfolio and Small Cap Value Portfolio were not selected to participate in or benefit from the aggregate management fee reduction discussed above. The NYAG Settlement also effectively requires that the Funds implement certain governance measures designed to maintain the independence of the Funds' Boards of Directors and appoint an independent compliance consultant responsible for monitoring the Funds' and WRIMCO's compliance with applicable laws.

The consent order issued by the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas (Kansas Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, requires Waddell & Reed to pay a fine of $2 million to the Office of the Commissioner.

The SEC Order further requires that the $50 million in settlement amounts described above will be distributed in accordance with a distribution plan developed by an independent distribution consultant, in consultation with Waddell & Reed, and that is agreed to by the SEC staff and the Funds' Disinterested Directors. The SEC Order requires that the independent distribution consultant develop a methodology and distribution plan pursuant to which Fund shareholders shall receive their proportionate share of losses, if any, suffered by the Funds due to market timing. Therefore, it is not currently possible to specify which particular Fund shareholders or groups of Fund shareholders will receive distributions of those settlement monies or in what proportion and amounts. However, as noted above, the SEC Order makes certain findings with respect to market timing activities in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds only. Accordingly, it is not expected that shareholders of W&R Target Funds, Inc. will receive distributions of settlement monies.

The foregoing is only a summary of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order. A copy of the SEC Order is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. A copy of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order is available as part of the Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. Form 8-K as filed on July 24, 2006.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of agreement in the dismissal of separate litigation, Waddell & Reed has also agreed to extend the reduction in the aggregate investment management fees paid by the Fund, as described above, for an additional five years.
